nation or a policy of national independence.â€•6 Here, nationalism is preceded by the very existence of a â€œnationâ€• but also by a sentiment or belief that produces â€œdevotionâ€• to the nation. Therefore, the nation is the gravity center where a sort of national identity is founded. This

1. Defining Nationalism - Acervos Digitales UDLAP

Nationalism is as much a process of formation of a nation as it is a sense of belonging to the nation. In addition, it is often a social and political movement as well as a doctrine or creed. Ultimately, nationalism is an ideology that places the nation at the crux of concern for the individual who subscribes to it.
